Mission
Empowering War Victims (EWV) is a non-governmental, non-religious, non-military and non-profitable organization based in Syracuse, United States. EWV projects are aimed at improving the lives of disabled government security forces and their families, as well as the families of deceased members of the security forces in Afghanistan. EWV strives to empower these people so that they can improve their own futures through mental rehabilitation, job creation, and job training.

Vision
A stable Afghanistan where security forces know that they and their families will have support in cases of injury or death and they and their families have the tools to shape their own bright futures.

Activities
- Job Creation
- Job Training
- Mental Rehabilitation
- Financial Support

Partners
Empowering War Victims has close partnerships with various human rights organizations including, but not limited to:

- Human Rights Watch
- Amnesty International
- CIVIC Campaign for Innocent Victims in Conflict

Beneficiaries
- War Victims
- Disabled Security Forces
- Families of Deceased Forces
- Children in Conflict
